10th Light Horse

“Western Australia’s 10th Light Horse Presentation”

My interest in Military started at an early age, watching any wartime movies that I could get hold of. My interest was rekindled in 2001 when we moved to Bakers Hill where we have retired to and I began riding in the Anzac Day Parade in Northam and have done that ever since.

From there came some photos of the 10th .Light Horse Soldiers and so began with what I have today, a travelling 10th .Light Horse Display. Consisting of over 2000 thousand photos, 1128 of individual 10th .Boys from WW1. Also 380 10th .Light Horse photos leading up to WW2. The display houses a full size model horse and mannequin both geared up as they were in the Palestine/Sinai campaign in WW1, books and diaries and five cases of memorabilia.

Since starting the display I have done 430 Shows, Festivals, Schools and Presentations at Rotary, Probus & Seniors Clubs all relating to the 10th .Light horse Regiment.
